Design PlueerSmitt
Year 2014

PlueerSmitt

Based in Basel, Swiss designers Dominic Plueer and Olivier Smitt work to challenge our assumption and perception of daily life's most basic products. Through emboldening a product's material presence and not demoting unfamiliar forms to typical primary functions, PlueerSmitt's small-scale furniture and objects confirm that life's basic products can realize new life as autonomous objects.

By contrasting volumes, the angular and the curved, Swiss design duo PlueerSmitt teases our sense of the familiar. While in essence it is a wooden side table consisting of two slender trestles and a tabletop, the sculptural quality of Side Table No. 2 blurs the lines between form and function. Viewed from different angles the side table varies greatly – timelessly elegant and ever intriguing.
